Introduction to World Religions

Course Overview

This one-semester course is intended to help you understand the origin, beliefs, and practices related to various world religions.

This course includes 14 lessons and 5 Course Activities. Each lesson contains one or more Lesson Activities. The lessons cover the following topics:

- The first lesson introduces the concept of religion and discusses different approaches to studying world religions.
- The next lesson discusses the origins, beliefs, and practices related to some primal religions.
- The next eleven lessons discuss the origins, beliefs, and practices related to various world religions.
- The final lesson discusses the origins, beliefs, and practices related to some contemporary religious movements.

You will submit the Course Activity documents to your teacher, and you will grade your work in the Lesson Activities by comparing them with sample responses. Each lesson also has a multiple-choice mastery test. A multiple-choice end-of-semester test completes the course.

The Course Activities (submitted to the teacher) and the Lesson Activities (self-checked) are major components of this course. They will guide your learning as you work through this course.

Course Goals

This course will help you meet the following goals:

- Summarize the beliefs of historic and modern world religions.
- Discuss the origins and development of the world's major religions.
- Compare practices, including rituals and festivals, from two or more world religions.
- Identify and describe in writing the unique aspects (including aspects like symbols, rituals, philosophies, or practices) of religious traditions from different places and times in history.
- Analyze how the beliefs and practices of the world's religions influence culture and social institutions.
- Interpret how the beliefs and practices of various religions provide purpose and meaning to the follower.
- Complete a presentation that demonstrates an understanding of the beliefs and practices of major world religions.

Prerequisite Skills

Introduction to World Religions is a beginner's course and does not have specific prerequisites. Nevertheless, these fundamental skills will be helpful:

Course Components and Grading Rubric

The table gives a breakdown of the weight for each component in the course. Weight represents the percentage of the total score coming from each activity.

| Course Components | Count | Weight |
|--|-----------|-------------|
| Module. Each module in this course contains an interactive tutorial and an associated mastery test. Tutorials may include one or more Lesson Activities that constitute tasks associated with the tutorial. The module score comes from a student's score on the mastery test. | 14 | 30% |
| Discussion. Online discussions allow for higher-order thinking about terminal objectives. An online threaded discussion mirrors the educational experience of a classroom discussion. Teachers can initiate a discussion by asking a complex, open-ended question. Students can engage in the discussion by responding both to the question and to the thoughts of others. Each unit in a course has one predefined discussion topic; teachers may add more discussion topics. | 5 | 20% |
| Course Activity. Course Activities are similar to Unit Activities in scope but may be found at any point in the course, either to prepare the student for new learning or to act as a performance-based activity required for a learning objective. Like Unit Activities, Course Activities include simple rubrics, and sample answers are available for teachers. Course Activities are teacher graded. | 5 | 30% |
| End of Semester Test. The end of semester test (EOS) appears at the end of the course. Students are delivered a few items from every tutorial in the course in order to assess the major course objectives. | 1 | 20% |
| Total | 25 | 100% |

*Teachers may manually adjust these weights if desired, per district grading requirements.
